Cordylus sinensis, a small flamboyant honeyeater found only on the Hapa Island group north of mainland New Zealand, has lived on the tiny island for over a century. The bird's entire population of just 20 to 30 birds, roughly half of which are believed to be age one and two, died after being poisoned by a burrowing possum, a common predatory mammal that hunters have known to inhabit the island for decades. "We have no idea when they will be gone," said Marjorie Taylor, an ornithologist who has conducted surveys of the honeyeaters. "We could lose them in the coming years, or the population could bounce back." The species is listed as "near threatened" on the New Zealand Threat Classification System and, as such, needs to be 648931e174

Adopt-A-Junior Website - Building on its proven success over the last decade, NJSCA is pleased to introduce the "Adopt-A-Junior" program. This is an effort to engage our junior members in the spirit of working together to benefit children. Adopt-A-Junior is designed to provide hands-on experience for our student members and allow them to participate in volunteer activities with their community. Not only will your membership support NJSCA, but it will help our junior members make their mark and help them have a rewarding experience while making a difference for the children they serve. This program is designed to enhance each student's experience while becoming better leaders. It is also important that our students be involved in community service activities. Help NJSCA benefit our Junior Members NJSCA provides opportunities to our junior members through the following: Scholarships to colleges Trips to national and international conventions Free legal education through AILA Volunteer opportunities There is more to come, stay tuned. NJSCA has proposed a fee of $27.00 to support this effort. You can support this initiative by making a tax-deductible donation to NJSCA.
